Chapter 1 :Dead Forest

~America's POV~
"Ugh" I groaned as I got up form bed. I checked my phone to find out that I'm going to be late for yet another meeting. "shit I've fifteen minutes to get there" I shout as I get dressed. I put my NATO t-shirt on some navy jeans and red sneakers. I ran out the door and grabbed an apple so I won't be hungry.

I hoped into my car and drove to where the meetings where held. The building was about 8 stories high with a bunch of offices for every country. There was also a cafeteria and a large board room with about 400 hundred chairs and of course there where bathrooms.

As I was driving, I was also counting down the seconds. "come on" I yelled at my self as I sped down the road. It was only five more minutes away. I finally reach the large building and got out and ran to the elevator and pressed the button for the the 8th floor "can this damn elevator go any slowerc I say quite pissed.
" finally" I say as I rushed though the bored room doors. Everyone started at me as I sat down beside Canada my brother. "What" I whispered to Canada as I didn't want to make too much noise. "you know your 1 hour late" Canada replied giggling a bit. "no Im not" I say as I checked the time on my phone. "oh fuck your right" I say to Canada who by the now in trying to hold in his laughter.

The rest of the meeting progressed and so did the arguing. "so America, Russia will you too be at peace" EU spoke up
Before I could even saying anything Russia started giving out and arguing with EU. "I WILL NEVER BE AT PEACE WITH THAT PIG" Russia yelled. As Russia and I where arguing in the middle of the room Russia suddenly kicked me. Even though Russia and I always fought we never used violence. I slowly got you and left the room. It was getting too much to handle.

I got in my car and decided to head home. I got a text from Canada asking where I was going.

Canada: where are you going,are you okay

America: Don't worry I'm fine I'm just heading home it was getting out of control.

Canada: oh OK well it'll vist you later

As I was on my way home I decided to stopwatch at this forest for a little walk. It couldn't do any harm right.
I walked up the forest and climbed out the fence with wire all around it. Once I got back inside I walked around for a whole but decided to head back as it was getting dark out. When it was walking back I heard leaves getting crunched behide me. I though it was just a animal of some sorting and continued walking. I'm keep walking and until a felting a sharp pain through my chest. I looked down and seen three large cuts on my chest, I look up to the person who did this when suddenly I fell to the ground my back up against a tree.

~Canada's POV~
I was outsider of America's house but he's carried wasn't here maybe he was at the shop I thought and waited another hour hour. I headed home in defeat hoping he was at the store. 5 days passed by and America still didn't show up. I was starting to get really worried now. I tried texting him but that didn't work usually he answered his texts right when he gets them. I tried texting other countries today see if they seen him but it was no use. I then gathered up a bunch of counties to meet him up so we could find him. "hey Canada I hope you don't mind but I'm dragging Russia with me" Ukraine said as she smiled at me
"that's no problem" I replied
"so America was last seen leaving the building after that now one seen him" I said.
"I think I seen his car when I was driving home. I think it was near the forest" Poland said.
"okay well let's all head there" I replied.

We all headed towards the forest and found America's car was there. "Everyone its dark outside so make sure you have your flashlight" I said grabbing may phone from my pocket.

~Russia's POV~
I started to search the forest as my sister dragged me along I didn't even want to find America. I rather him be dead. As I walked around when I noticed a foul smell coming from behide a tree. I look around the tree to find America's decaying body. I screamed so loud everyone came running towards me. But they all had the same reaction.

Its been five days since America's death. We had a funeral for him,poor Canada it was all my fault America was dead why was I so stupid. ~America's POV~
Shit who can I go to. Everyone would better asleep right now. God I can't believe I'm about to say this but maybe Russia. He always stays up late. Its going to be weird for him to see me like this but what else can I say do.

I quickly ran to Russia's house not wanting to get caught. I looked inside his window and found Russia crying on his couch. What a was he crying about was it me?

I knocked on the Russia's door hoping he wouldn't freak out when he seen me. Russia slowly opened the door and...

America went inside the house and sat down on a large sofa." I still can't believe your alive.....this must be a dream""hey it even weirder for me." I need to tell Canada about this"Russia said under his breath." don't bother he probably won't be awake. Canada always goes to bed early and he's a heavy sleeper" America replied. "you know what I'm going to bed I'll deal with this in the morning" Russia said getting up and walking out the door. "hey where I'm I going to sleep" America wined. "your dead do you even need to sleep" America shrugged. "gah. fine you can sleep on the couch heres a blacket" Russia said as he throw a blacket over America. "thanks" America said as Russia walked out the room.

~Russia's POV~
I woke at around 7:00 am. "god what was that dream I had last night. Heh America isn't alive" I said to myself as I walked downstairs. I headed into the sitting room and then stopped in my tracks. "ah shit it wasn't a dream" I said as I seen America in the couch watching TV. "Morning Russ" he said when he seen me "don't call me that" I said as I sat on the couch beside him. "aww why not. Do you want me to call you Ruski instead" "NO.....Ugh what time would your brother be awake at" I asked annoyed at the dead American. "I don't know around eight am I think"
"America how did you die" I asked as none of us know really how he died. "uhh.....w-well I was in the forest and was about to get back when I think I someone murdered me" America replied nervous. "how are you so sure" I asked know interested. "well I seen a figure in black in front of me,but I didn't see there face so I don't know who it was. They just kinda laughed I guess" while America was talking he had he's head down.

"Well I'm going to make breakfast" I said getting up to break the tension. 'oh can I come" America asked. "yeah but I don't think you need to eat" I replied. "I'm always hungry" America said laughing.

We both headed into the kitchen starting cooking up some food. America was making toast and I was making scrambled eggs. "ah this hand is hard to use" America said as he got frustrated. I let out a small laugh. "it's not funny it's difficult" "it's a bit funny" I said still laughing. "humf" said America as he turned he's head. God he is dramatic. We both went into the sitting room and sat down eating. "Russia" America said. "huh yeah"
"when i knocked at the door I seen you where crying. Where you crying.....over me" America asked. I was silent i didn't want to admit I was crying over him. "s-sorry if it was a personal question" America said and continued eating. After we where finished we then cleaned up the kitchen and sitting room. "come on let me drive you to Canada's place" I said as we walked out the door.

After about 20 minutes later America spoke up. "this is the place" He said. Well we could definitely tell it was the place as there was a bit of blood still on the tree all though it was Bearley noticeable. "ok so what know" Canada asked. "we look for something that can tell us who killed me" America replied. "well that's the best option we got" Germany replied. We all walked around the area to look for a something. After about ten minutes of nothing we meant back up. "I don't think we're going to find anything and it's getting dark so we should head back" Canada said. "yeah I guess you're right" America replied as he sighed.

We all where walking back to Canada's car when we all seen a figure of someone. He was staring at us, it was hard to tell who this man was as it was getting dark but we all could make out a grin on he's face. Before any of us could even do anything America began chasing the man. "AMERICA WAIT" Canada shouted. "I'll fallow him you too get back to the car" I yelled already running after America.

Chapter 11: I Don't Know What To Call This Chapter

Russia's POV
Everyone rushed out of Germanys house to find the others.
"what way did they go" Canada asked North. "The town I think"
"There won't be enough room in the car" Germany said. "I'll run there and meet you all" I said running before they could even answer.

After about 20 minutes of running I reached the town to see an awful site. People running screaming as these monsters chase them, eat them and rip them apart. It had felt like my whole world had slowed down as I looked at the site in front of me. I turned around to see Germany, North Korea, Canada and Ukraine my sister tugging on me calling my name. "We have to go we can't stay here anymore" Ukraine shouted pulling me away. "NO I-I can't I need to...to find America" I shouted back. "Russia he's gone we have to go"

Unfortunate :Chapter 13

~Narrators POV~
Russia woke up he was in the same position he was in when he fell unconscious. He got up confused and looked around. there where a couple zombie walking around. Russia wondered why they weren't after him. That's when he Realised it. He Realised he had become one of them. Russia was confused they would have eaten him he should have died not become one of them. Why did he turn. Russia got up stumbling a bit. He didn't expect this he expect to be a mindless walking corpse but he still had full control.

~Russia's POV~
I walked around a bit wondering what to do next. I sat down at a gravestone and wondered what I should do. Should I go back to our bunker or would we they shoot me at first sight. I soon started to feel hungry. I knew what I'd have to do but u really didn't want to kill anyone.
I felt a tap on my shoulder and turned around. "A-Ameerrrica" I said looking at him. "Hey R-Rus" he said back. I got up and hugged him. "Woah did you miss me" he joked. I let go and he handed me something. "I thought you might get hungry" he said handing me something. I looked at it them him. "Do I have to..." I asked. "well yeah if you want to keep control of of your self" he replied. "But it looks.....Nasty" I replied. America laughed a bit. "Fine but how did you knowing I turned" I asked you confused. "Haha about that" America replied Nervously. "I kinda sorta was the one that turned you. BUT I CAN EXPLAIN"
I gave America a look.
"you see they where you going to kill you and I didn't want to see you like that so I sorta bit you so they won't kill you...."
"..."
"Im sorry Im sorry I panicked" he said.
"It's whatever" I replied in a sorta of pissed tone. "Soo you wouldn't know if my familys ok would you" America asked. "well I know Canada is ok but I'm not sure about the others they didn't come with us"
